Yellow warning
Rain

Between
06:00 Tue 1 Oct 2024 and
16:00 Tue 1 Oct 2024

Further rain, locally heavy, will develop for a time on Tuesday leading to potential for some impacts and disruption

What to expect

- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Some interruption to power supplies and other services likely

Further details

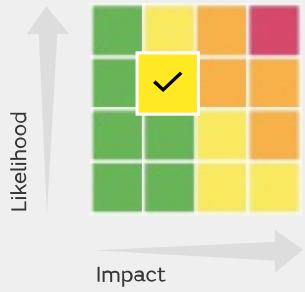
An area of rain is expected to develop later this morning across the north of the warning area, before spreading south, whilst turning heavy in places. Much of the warning area will see 15-20 mm of rain, with a few places seeing 30-40 mm. Whilst these totals are not unusual for the time of year, given recent very wet weather some impacts and disruption are more likely than normal.

Rain will ease across the north of the warning area through early afternoon, before clearing the south of the warning area by Tuesday evening.



Medium likelihood of low impacts

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.
